To all TRUE BRITONS.

My worthy Friends and Countrymen,

ALLOW an Individual, who ſincerely reſpects you, to addreſs you from an honeſt Heart,—He beholds with Indignation the Inſult that has been offered you by Foreign and Domeſtic Enemies.—He deteſts their impious Attempt to deprive you of that RELIGION, that CONSTITUTION, that LIBERTY, and that PROPERTY; the Preſervation of which has hitherto dignified you above all Nations.

Spurn the contemptible Invaders of your Peace.—Think for yourſelves.—Aſſociate with good Men.

Never let what your Anceſtors ſecured by their Wiſdom and Fortitude, what you are all ready to defend with your Blood, be filch'd from you by Deceit!

A FRIEND TO HONEST MEN.
